Section C – Method of withdrawal

Please note that the following options may also be referred to as a part surrender instead of a withdrawal in your account Terms.

If you have not chosen to take a partial withdrawal from your account, please proceed to Section D - Full Surrender of Individual Policies.

Note – There are tax implications when you take money from your account. Depending on the type of withdrawal you make, partial surrender across all policies or individual policy surrender, this can lead to different tax consequences. We cannot recommend which method is best for your personal circumstances. Please speak to your financial adviser to find out which method might best fit your needs.

Select the method for withdrawal – payment can only be made in the account currency

One off withdrawal across all policies

Payment can only be made in account currency

Withdrawal value or write Maximum or Maximum penalty free*

* Maximum means the largest partial withdrawal available whilst maintaining a minimum balance, in line with the account Terms, to keep the account open. Where requesting the maximum amount, please just insert the word 'Maximum'. There may be a charge applied if you make a withdrawal over your 'penalty free allowance'. You can request a maximum penalty free withdrawal which may reduce the amount available but will ensure no charge applies. Please note, however, that a tax charge may still apply.

Regular withdrawal

(only available on Managed Capital Account and Executive Wealth Account)

Payment can only be made in account currency

Value or Percentage of total premiums (per year)

Monthly Quaterly Half yearly Yearly

Start date:

If your regular withdrawal start date has passed before we process this request, we will arrange a one off payment for the missed amount and start your regular payment from the next payment date.

Note – Payments can only be made in the account currency.

Section D – Full surrender of individual policies

If you do not want to take a Full Surrender of Individual Policies from your account, please proceed to Section E, 'Account Maturity'.

Withdrawal value or Number of policies to surrender

- If you would like to surrender individual policies to receive a specific value, we will calculate the number of full policies to surrender based on the current value of the account. We will meet any shortfall by withdrawing the remaining amount across all policies (a partial surrender).
- There are tax implications when you take money from your account. We cannot recommend which method is best for your personal circumstances. Please speak to your financial adviser to find out which method might best fit your needs.

Section E – Account maturity

Maturity date:

Section F – Account closure

Note – If fully surrendering your account, you must cancel any standing order that you may have for your account.

Section G – Payment details

Note

- Payments must benefit all accountholders equally by being paid to a joint bank account. Payments to a third party are not permitted.
- If not using a joint bank account, please specify the additional bank account details. Payments will be issued equally between accounts.
- Providing new bank details not previously paid to could cause delays as additional verification may be required.

All payments will be sent by Telegraphic Transfer (TT). Please note TT charges will apply.

Questions and Answers

Please read these questions and answers before completing and sending your instruction to us.

1. How do I know how much I will get when I close my account?

You can contact our Client and Adviser Support team by email to: QINTLask@quilter.com or by phone, 0044 (0) 1624 655555, prior to making your request. The team will be able to provide you with an approximate full surrender (closure) value as well as a breakdown of any associated account charges.

2. What does a Unit Linked account refer to?

A Unit Linked account refers to a regular premium contract including, but not restricted to, your Managed Capital Account, Managed Savings Account, Managed Pension Account, and Executive Wealthbuilder Account.

3. Why do I need to provide my Tax Identification Number and country of tax residence?

Under Automatic Exchange of Information (AEOI) regulations we are required to obtain certain information from our investors, including countries of tax residence and related tax identification numbers. We may have to provide this information to our domestic tax authority who may share it with overseas tax authorities. Failure to provide this information could result in your details automatically being reported under AEOI by default.

4. Are there any tax implications if I make a withdrawal?

The answer to this question varies depending on your individual circumstances and for this reason we strongly recommend that you seek financial and tax advice prior to requesting a withdrawal or surrender. Quilter International cannot provide you with financial or tax advice. For Ireland products, depending on the country of residence, Quilter International Ireland may be obliged to withhold tax from a payment.

5. Are there any early encashment charges?

There could be early encashment charges. However, they vary by product and can depend on the length of time you have held the account. Details can be found in your charges schedule. If you require more information, please contact us using the details shown in question 10.

6. What happens if something is missing?

If, in our view, your instruction is not clear or we are missing key information, we will be unable to proceed and we will typically contact you or your financial adviser as per your instruction on page 1. This will delay your request.

7. Who has to sign the form?

All accountholders, including trustees, authorised signatories and/or pledgees (where applicable) must sign.

8. If I do not have access to email, where can I send my completed form to?

To post your completed form, please address this to the Payment Department at either Quilter International Isle of Man Limited or Quilter International Ireland dac (using the location relevant to your product) and send this to King Edward Bay House, King Edward Road, Onchan, Isle of Man, IM99 1NU, British Isles or alternatively you can fax it to 0044 (0)1624 611715.

9. If I have chosen a percentage for my Regular Withdrawal, what is this based on?

Percentages withdrawn will be based on the premium(s) received prior to this request. If you require the percentage to include any additional premiums received in the future, we will require revised instructions to this effect at the time of adding to the policy.

10. What if I have more questions?

Your financial adviser should be your first point of contact. However, if you would like to speak to us, please call our Client and Adviser Support team on 0044 (0) 1624 655555 or email us at QINTLask@quilter.com
